

Kingsmill Resort Names New General Manager

Bill Horn comes to Kingsmill from The Breakers Resort

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (October 18, 2022) – Escalante Golf, a boutique owner and operator of numerous properties across the United States including Kingsmill Resort in Williamsburg, Va., announced today the naming of Bill Horn as general manager of the resort. Horn officially started in the role on September 25.

Horn brings extensive hospitality and golf resort experience in operations and membership engagement to Kingsmill, which recently announced a $25 million investment in the resort's amenities, club, and guest experience over the next five years.

Horn began his career at The Boca Raton Resort and Club in Florida where he discovered his passion for hospitality and leadership skills. Prior to joining the Kingsmill Resort team, Horn also served as director of guest relations and room division manager at The Breakers Resort, managing day-to-day operations of the iconic property of Palm Beach. Horn was a previous director of the PGA National Resort and Spa, holding multiple positions during his 17-year career including the last five as Resort Manager.

"The team and partners at Escalante Golf are amazing, and I am proud and humbled to join the Kingsmill team," said Horn. "There is an incredible opportunity to make an impact at Kingsmill, with the upcoming renovations and resources being added in the future. I look forward to working alongside such a talented hospitality team to help position Kingsmill as one of the premier destinations in our region."

Horn earned his degree from the International College of Communications. He previously served on the board of directors for Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association of Palm Beach, as well as other community charitable organizations such as United Way of Palm Beach, Palm Beach Chamber and the Children's Home Society of Palm Beach. Horn grew up in Dayton, Ohio with his family before relocating to Florida in 1990.

Escalante Golf is a boutique owner and operator of numerous properties across the US and stewards some of the most prestigious golf courses and private clubs in the country.
